

Ethics Policy

1. Editors may seek advice on submitted paper on ethical and security issue not only from the technical reviewer but also from relevant expert.
2. Occasionally editor may find ethical issues about data or materials which raise concern. In such cases the issue will be resolved before paper accepted for publication
3. If concern are related to implication on the society on individual in such cases advise will be obtained from more than one reviewer and if needed from an Expert.
4. If the article has any threat to security of an organization, state or nation we may sought advice of concerned expert before publication.
5. Editors Advisors and Reviewers will be top professionals in their own field who have taken up the assignment to contribute for quality research publication.
6. Nobody in the publishing team will be paid any remuneration nor will they demand any charge from the authors.
7. Reviewers will apply themselves to review articles sent to them and ensure the quality in format and content.
8. Author will be black listed if he/she sends any articles which are not his/her own work and picked up/copied from somewhere.
9. Publishers believe strongly on helping authors in improving their paper writing.